CLASS POEM

Although what we've sometimes had here has been a communication gap between like ages,
— here because of our own opinionated divisions —
Perhaps today we can realize that is not what we are here for.
Although we seem occasionally overwhelmed by our own materialistic judgments,
Perhaps today we can realize that we have a lot more than yesterday's notes to lend each other.
Although it seems we should be growing and expanding on whatever we have to feed each other,
our imaginations appear frozen, instead of flowing, concentrating primarily on our differences — seems we've done that far too long — Perhaps now we might be able to achieve a feeling described as "a oneness that is so strong that when one cries,
the other tastes salt."
And although we'd all love to change the world at once, Perhaps we can start with the patience and understanding it takes to realize that the differences we see in each other were probably once our own traits, and tomorrow . . .
tomorrow we'll see more of them that still stifle our own souls today.

Class Will

We, the members of the class of 1975, the largest class ever to graduate from Waltham High School and the class of the first year of the Bicentennial Celebration, do hereby devise and bequeath to our illustrious faculty and staff these cherished and memorable gifts:

To Mr. George E. P. Husson, Jr., our WHS principal, we present a machine to capture and enmesh the culprits of the fire alarm capers.

To Mr. Viscarello, Vocational School director, our gift is a dozen male nurses to further popularize the nursing program.

For Mr. Levey we provide a course in radio broadcasting to prevent the loss of tone noted in recent PA performances at the close of school.

To Senior Housemaster Tom Neylon we give a machine that simultaneously checks blue slips, adds up demerits, and removes from the premises the accused offender.

To Mr. Foley, new functions so he won't go off on a tangent.

To Mrs. Caloggero a double gift: a miniature greenhouse for her plants and a TV monitor for checking the girls' rooms.

For Mrs. Baker — 10 laps.

To Mr. Woronicz — towel money.

To Mr. Tulanian, a ten years' supply of wood.

And to Mr. Ferrante, a series of first prize awards for the Stage Band.

Front row tickets to "Zorba the Greek" have been reserved for our elite WHS theater group: Miss Geary, Mr. Travalini, Ms. Devane, Ms. Tahaney, and DOC.

Our guarantee to Miss Elizabeth Collins is the success of her autobiography, THE RETURN OF THE NATIVE.

To honor Mrs. Graceffa, her classes wish to rename fruit flies Gracophila.

On the horizon for Mr. Eagle we see another Senior Revue like ours.

For Mr. Grant a xeroxed set of directions to the Planetarium.

To aid Miss Nolan, a college suitable for everyone who consults Guidance.

For Mr. Walker a banner proclaiming his favorite saying: "You'll like it." and for Mr. Nelson, paternity leave for Baby Dawn Nelson.

Our class takes note of the Bicentennial by leaving Mr. Steinberg a Liberty Bell and by ordering for Mr. Mrugala costumes and horses for future Paul Revere rides.

Thanks to Mr. Lando, our best employment agent.

We are recruiting a troop of Cub Scouts to teach Ms. Irwin some basic knots.

As a teaching aid for Mr. Macy we have designed an interlocking circle seating arrangement.

For Mr. Gannon — an ice cube to keep him cool.

A guest appearance on Crocket's Garden Show, Channel 2, is a suggestion for Mr. Capucci, whose gardening skill is the envy of his colleagues.

To Miss Misseri we will deliver self-cleaning typewriters.

For Mr. Damien, a big vote of thanks from the Vocational '75 class for helping us to cope with the real world.

For Miss Magrath we would supply a brigade of sewing machines which would operate at her command.

To make it easier for her students to play Scrabble, we are setting up card tables in Ms. Fryer's room.

As a sponsor of candidates to Harvard, Yale, MIT, the Ivy League colleges, we recognize Mr. Vallely.

What more appropriate for Mr. Rose than 40 loves with Billy Jean King?

The Most Absent Minded Professor is our label for Mr. Pizzi.

We wish for Mr. Thorp, student council advisor, a faultless election.

And for Mr. and Mrs. Mathews an assignment for a class in team teaching.

All these gifts and more we wish for our faculty and the two classes we leave as we graduate on June 3 from WHS. We salute the half-century Class of 1950 whose members are so well known in the Waltham School Administration and Faculty here at WHS. We, who complete the third quarter of the 20th century, ask Mr. Meader, Mrs. McKnight, Mrs. Shirley, and Mr. Richman to witness this, our solemn document, on June 2, at the Verner Robinson Auditorium, Waltham High School, City of Waltham, County Middlesex, Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Tennis

Kathy Shinnick, this year's tennis captain, was the 1st girl from Waltham High to ever enter the State Tournament. Her league record of 9 wins and 9 losses at first singles, helped the team compile a 5-6 win-loss record. In the states, she won in the first round, 6-2, 6-1, but lost the second in three sets, 6-4, 2-6, 3-6. She was also the Tennis M.V.P. in both her Junior and Senior year.

*The . . .
Faculty*

"A seven-footer, praise be to Ala."

I said "Say cheese" but this is ridiculous.

Which one of you said, "I hate the Celtics?"

My girdle is killing me.

And the male bee, heavily laden with pollen.

"Patty-cake, patty-cake."

Are you sure you're supposed to cook hamburgers this way?

And last but not least a gift certificate for on free whopper at the Burger King.

And this is called a basketball.

Velcome to my laboratory.

Are you sure that's oregano?

O.K. Louis, up against the wall.

Oh look, Mr. Nelson's grown a beard.

ARCHIE BUNKER

Isn't this Let's Make a Deal?

ddy's awards are almost as big as his sandwiches.

Gee, Mr. Leverone, I didn't know you could get a Master's Degree in Tinker Toys.

Macbeth turns to Macduff and says, "Get this one."

CLASS OF 1975

Sincere congratulations,
Class of '75;
You have a wonderful heritage,
To work for and to strive.

It's the year of the Bicentennial,
Your graduation year;
With a legacy of freedom,
For you and all your peers.

You have an obligation,
It's really up to you;
To add prestige to our country,
In all that you may do.

As you build your future for yourself,
Help keep our country strong;
With goals like these before you,
You really can't go wrong.

Believe in yourself and this land you love,
As your forefathers did before;
Be proud of your home and country,
No one could ask for more.

You've been prepared for the future,
Throughout the long school years;
You stand today, as young adults,
As graduation nears.

Accept the challenge handed down,
200 years ago;
We need a free America,
Please help to keep it so.

And now to you, Class of '75,
Go wishes warm and sincere;
For a wonderful graduation day,
In this Bicentennial year.

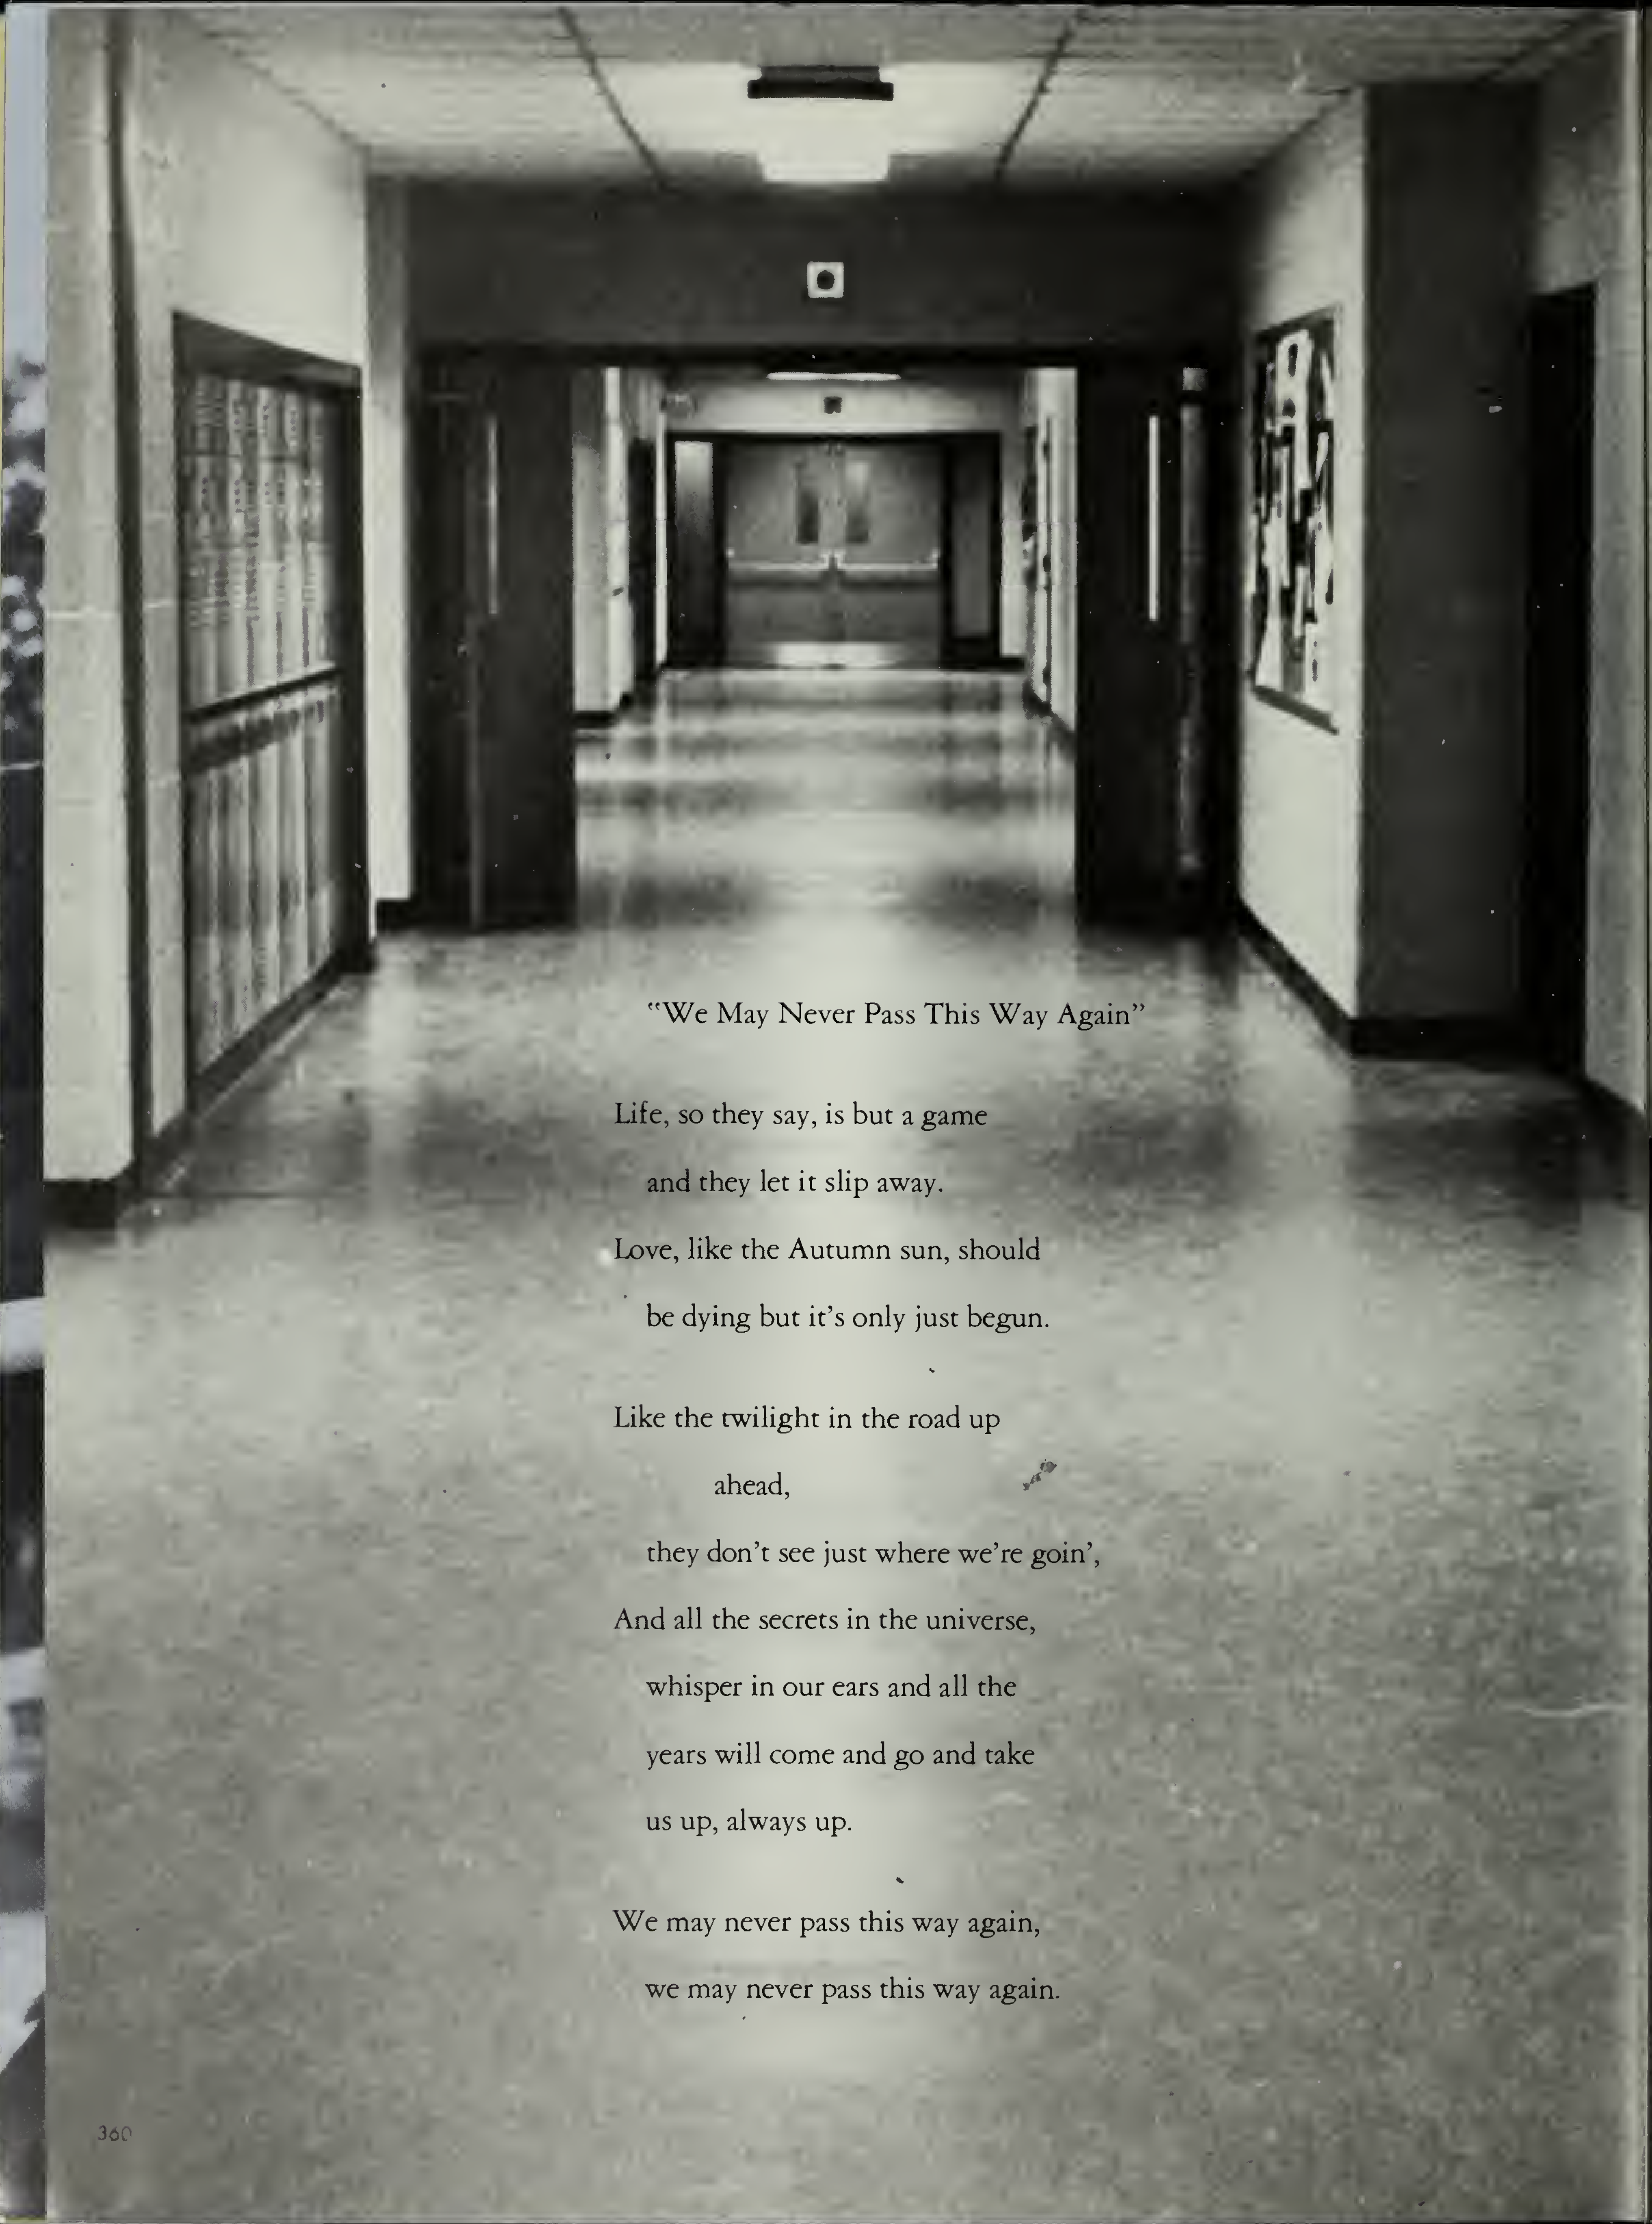
If there be any truer measure of a man than by what he does, it must be by what he gives.



"We May Never Pass This Way Again"

Life, so they say, is but a game
and they let it slip away.
Love, like the Autumn sun, should be dying but it's only just begun.

Like the twilight in the road up ahead,
they don't see just where we're goin',
And all the secrets in the universe, whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go and take us up, always up.

We may never pass this way again,
we may never pass this way again.
